

Harvey's junior burger not a bargain, say students

By Lauren Nadeau

A Harvey's junior burger at 99 cents (99¢) is not as good as it seems, say students of the "Big Cheese" fast-food chain. The Oshawa campus' junior burger is worth $1.25.

"Harvey's manager Mr. Metelen told he was contacted after the price discrepancy was found," said a student.

"The new junior burger contains the junior burger but it doesn't have a double cheese or a dressing and the bun is small," said Metelen.

When the special burger was introduced at Oshawa College, the food was not popular. In fact, it was not sold at all. The manager said it was not sold at all.

"I think the price is not fair because it is not a burger," said a student.

"I don't think it's a burger," said a student.

Sein Language a guide to life's mysteries

By Brent Meyer

As the world comes to the end of the 20th century, people every where are looking for the answers to many questions.

Although the 20th century is a time of great change, you might want to turn to Jerry Seinfeld's new book, Sein Language (published by Bantam Books for $22.95).

Sein Language may not have the answers to your deepest fears, but it is a very entertaining way to spend an afternoon.

Sein Language looks at a variety of human characteristics, ranging from dining and sex to travel and personal hygiene.

Seinfeld, star of the NBC show of the same name, says he's a first time writer, but he has put together a collection of Seinfeld stories that he's really made a person say. "That, he's right."

The material for the book is taken through his life as a writer, from the first time he wrote a story to the first time he wrote a story.

The book is a very entertaining way to spend an afternoon. It is a very entertaining way to spend an afternoon.

Each topic is self-contained and easy to read, and it is a very entertaining way to spend an afternoon.

A perfect example is the "Seinfeld's" chapter on sex. It is a very entertaining way to spend an afternoon.
